CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Plaintiff,

Case No. 1:21-cv-05014

V.

Hon M. DAVID WEISMAN

THOMAS J. DART,

Motion For Appointment Of Counsel

Plaintiff, MICHAEL C. MAYO request leave for appointment of counsel pursuant to Fed R. Civ. Pro. 1915(e). States as follows:

1. Plaintiff filed two previous motions requesting for the court to appoint him an attorney. Plaintiff has contacted by phone and mail numerous attorneys to obtain counsel and he was unsuccessful.

2. Plaintiff is housed in Residential Treatment Unit, (RTU), which does not have a law Library to attend. Plaintiff is unable to do procedural civil research.
3. Plaintiff does not have access to legal books to do adequate research, which violates the Bounds Requirement Supreme Court Ruling.
4. RTU has a delivery service where an alleged paralegal whom comes once a week and gives only three (3) requested items a week.
5. Plaintiff is in the discovery process in this civil action and does not completely understand the process and what to request to adequately represent himself.
6. Plaintiff is housed in RTU due to a number of chronic serious medical conditions and consumes vital medication on a daily basis that causes him to be lethargic and drowsy. As a result plaintiff requires hours of sleep to maintain mental awareness. (Much more than the average person)

7. Once plaintiff receives legal documents from the court or defendants attorney he has to miss his medication to respond to the documents to remain competent without the side effects from his daily life saving medication.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request for this honorable court to grant this motion.
